30th March 2017

Dear Early Years Parents,

A brief update for you following on from our meeting.

The newsletter had an initial summary of ideas about communication, so you will know that we are looking into possibilities of email or text contacts. Website training for office staff and one of our governors is booked for early May and I will be talking with our website designer about improving the ease of access. A parent suggested we may be able to use EDMODO to aid communication. We are looking into this and had also started some research on CLASS DOJO amongst other platforms.

We will be offering parent workshop opportunities. The first will be online safety, in response to conversations with a number of parents who are concerned and because of conversations with children about what they use recreationally.

Mrs Hill has already contacted you regarding volunteering to help and has sent you advance notice of some Early Years 'Stay and Play' dates.

Finally-don't forget the FOS (Friends of the School) meeting on Friday 21st April.

Best wishes

Jane Le Grice
