

Learning Support Assistant SEND Vacancy

Salary: £18333 pro rata

Job term: Fixed term contract to 31st August 2023 (subject to a review of the school's requirements)

Appointment: Term time only; 17.5 hours per week. Monday to Friday afternoons only from 12.00pm to 3.30pm.

We are seeking to appoint a new Teaching Assistant who will join our team, initially in the Early Years Foundation Stage, to support a pupil with special educational needs. The role will involve a mixture of in-class, one-to-one and small group work with specific pupils who have special educational or behavioural needs. The role will also involve providing midday supervisory support during the lunch break.

A caring nature and ability to work with children is essential. Experience of working with pupils with special educational and behavioural needs would be beneficial.

You will:

- be passionate about meeting children's needs;
- be able to support and encourage pupils positively;
- be able to work in a team and have good interpersonal skills;
- be flexible and able to use your initiative in supporting pupils' learning;
- have good English and maths skills (GCSE or equivalent qualifications).
